TOP 100 RETAIL REAL ESTATE OWNERS 2009

APR 9, 2009 5:22 PM

Top Owners

Our rankings are based on total retail GLA owned and managed in the U.S., as reported by companies. Respondents were asked to include GLA through Dec. 31 and report only retail GLA and only their percentage of ownership in joint ventures. A few companies did not respond to the survey and in these cases pertinent information was obtained from annual reports and Web sites, where possible.

If your company is not included in this year's list and you think it should be, please contact david.bodamer@penton.com and ask that your firm be added to our database for next year's rankings.

When the Landlord Can't Pay the Mortgage

Podcast In the face of the biggest financial crisis and deepest recession since the Great Depression, retail landlords are increasingly falling behind on mortgage payments or defaulting entirely. Owners are facing great difficulties refinancing debt. One major source of financing—commercial mortgage-backed securities—is no longer available. And the lenders that are still in the market have dramatically tightened underwriting standards.
